SPOTLIGHT CHRISTCHURCH NOW OPEN
Collect your Purple Ribbon in store today and show your support

Spotlight Christchurch, located at the corner of Colombo and Elgin Streets in Sydenham has reopened for trade after suffering damage in the recent 7.2 magnitude earthquake and following aftershocks.

Spotlight General Manager of Retail Operations Ms Jacqui Coombes said “We are glad that we are in a position to reopen the store and serve the community in Christchurch after such a significant event”

“Our store team with the assistance of the community have rallied around Spotlight and many other businesses ensuring that we get the doors open and can trade as normal” said Ms Coombes.

Spotlight today also launched a Purple Ribbon Campaign for the Christchurch community, encouraging customers to come into store and collect their free ribbon to show solidarity and support the many members of the community that have been affected.

Customers are encouraged to visit the Spotlight website www.spotlight.co.nz for store locations. Or visit the team at Spotlight Christchurch to collect your free Purple Ribbon.
